TRANSPORTATION & TRAVEL

Airport: Bradley International Airport

Windsor Locks, CT

860-292-2000

Approx. 20 minutes away

- There is an express bus from Union Station to Bradley International Airport.
- New Haven's Tweed airport is another option; it is about 45 minutes away

Public Transportation: CT Transit and FastTrak

- Hartford has a large public bus system that traverses the city as well as the nearby suburbs where large shopping plazas and various restaurants are located.
- At www.cttransit.com you will find route plans, schedules, maps etc. If you would like print copies of any map systems, the Bus Information Kiosk is located in State House Square (across from the Post Office).
- DASH - the downtown shuttle bus where everyone rides FREE!

Train: Amtrak and CTRail

- Amtrak runs 2 direct trains to NY daily with an additional 5-6 trips that include a New Haven transfer. Tickets to NY cost anywhere from $40-$108
- CTRail runs between Springfield and New Haven and with Amtrak run 17 Round Trips daily. From New Haven you can transfer to Amtrak or the Metro North lines running to NYC. A one-way ticket from Hartford to New Haven costs $8, on either CTRail or the Amtrak Shuttle.
- Amtrak and the CTRail run through Union Station, which is located at 1 Union Place

Bus: Greyhound, Peter Pan and Megabus

- Both Greyhound and Peter Pan bus lines operate out of Union Station. Megabus picks up on Columbus Blvd between Morgan St. and Talcott St.
- All bus options cost less than $40 one way; prices are based on availability. Purchasing in advance online will always offer you the best price.

Car Rental

- Enterprise, Hertz, and Avis have local rental offices. There are also numerous agencies at Bradley International Airport.
- The Bushnell usually rents through Enterprise at 160 Park Road in West Hartford (860-232-6665)
- ZipCar rentals are available at Bradley International Airport, Univ. of Hartford, Trinity College, and Wesleyan University (in Middletown, CT).

Taxi Services
