THE BUSHNELL

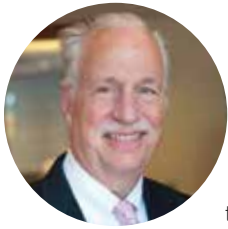
With Gratitude



With the Thanksgiving holiday right around the corner, it's only appropriate to think about the things we're grateful for this year. Thank you to our staff and volunteers who work so hard every day to provide the world-class patron experience that our audiences have come to expect. Thank you to all our donors who support our various talent development and arts-in-education experiences throughout the year. And thank you to our patrons, who arrive at every show excited and ready to experience the thrill of live theater in our beautiful building.

We're diving into the festive season headfirst, with a trifecta of holiday programming kicking off right after Thanksgiving. Join us on Friday, November 27 for Jim Brickman: A Christmas Celebration, Saturday, November 28 for Sister's Christmas Catechism: The Mystery of the Magi's Gold and Sunday, November 29 for A Magical Cirque Christmas. And don't miss your holiday tradition of The Nutcracker with performances from The Nutmeg Ballet and Connecticut Ballet in December.

But this week, we combine nostalgia and new with BOOP! The Musical. There's something special about a character who seems to belong to everyone. Some of you may remember Betty Boop from old cartoons on television, others from a vintage lunchbox or a t-shirt in a shop window, and some of the youngest members of tonight's audience may be meeting her for the very first time. I love that a single show can bring all of those perspectives into the same room.

Traditions are what the holidays are made of, and we are honored that so many families have made The Bushnell part of theirs. As Betty travels from her black-and-white world and into a vibrant, technicolor New York City, we hope the lights of the holidays brighten your lives as we move closer to the new year.

Sincerely,

David R. Fay

His celebrated writing credits also include The Prom (Tony® nomination for Best Book of a Musical), Half Time, and more. Known for his ability to blend comedy with genuine emotion, Martin's work often explores the joy, absurdity, and humanity of show business itself. Most recently, he co-wrote the book for BOOP! The Musical, the new Broadway production that reimagines the legendary Betty Boop for the stage. With his signature blend of wit, heart, and theatrical flair, Martin continues to craft stories that delight audiences and celebrate the power of performance.

THE BUSHNELL SERVICES

The Customer Relations Desk is located on the Belding First Floor Lobby. If you need assistance during the performance, please ask an usher for a House Manger, or visit the Customer Relations Desk.

We strive to create an enjoyable and respectful environment for all patrons, performers, and staff. To ensure the best possible experience for everyone, we kindly ask that you review and follow our Theater Etiquette Policy at bushnell.org/etiquette

Stay Connected
Tickets, news, and information are available online at www.bushnell.org.

Parking
Free, secure and well-lit parking is available in the State of Connecticut lot at 107 Capitol Ave. and the Buckingham Garage at 315 Buckingham St. These locations are first-come, first-served and open two hours before each performance and closes one hour after. Accessible parking is available in both locations with a valid accessible parking permit. In addition, valet parking is available for many evening and weekend performances (excludes weekday matinees).

Late Arrival
Late seating will be at the discretion of the production and requires that late patrons wait to enter the theater until a designated break in the performance. For your convenience, closed circuit televisions are in the lobbies.

In Case of an Emergency
Exits are indicated by signs located above the theater entrances. For your safety, please check the location of the exit nearest your seat. In the event of an evacuation, Bushnell staff and volunteers are available to assist you.

Café
Visit Max's Café or any of our concessions for a quick bite before the show. Max's Café features soups, salads, sandwiches, pastries and more. Max's Café is open 2 hours prior to most shows.

Disruptive Behavior
Any patron who disturbs other patrons; causes damage to The Bushnell property; or does not cooperate with staff and security personnel will be asked to leave the venue.

Electronic Devices
Cell phones and other electronic devices should be silenced prior to entering the theater. Text messaging and the use of other devices that cause unnecessary light are prohibited in the theater. Photos and videos of the production are not allowed.

End of Performance
For your safety and the safety of your fellow patrons, please do not leave your seat until the house lights have been turned on.

Tours
Onsite, offsite, and virtual tours can be scheduled by appointment and are complimentary. Please visit bushnell.org/tours to request a tour.

Children
Everyone attending performances at The Bushnell must have a ticket, regardless of age. To ensure optimum enjoyment for all patrons, we recommend that children under 5 only attend shows in the Family Series and The Bushnell Children's Theatre. The Bushnell staff reserves the right to ask any parents/guardians whose children cause disruptions during a performance to leave the theater.

Lost & Found
Call (860) 987-6061 or email feedback@bushnell.org for lost items.

Accessibility Information
The Bushnell is equipped with accessible entrances, ramps, elevators, and restrooms. When ordering your tickets, be sure to tell the Box Office of any special requirements. Information on the Sennheiser MobileConnect App, Assisted Listening Devices and induction loops are available at the Customer Relations Desk to assist with sound amplification and clarity. A photo ID must be presented. Patrons are encouraged to bring their own headphones. Sensory-Friendly supports can be found at the Customer Relations Desk for all performances. For a list of audio described, ASL, and sensory-friendly/relaxed performances, visit bushnell.org/accessibility.

If you have any additional questions or comments regarding Bushnell services, please contact the Box Office at (860) 987-5900 or feedback@bushnell.org

Safe Medication Habits Keep Your Home Safe for Everyone

Not all pill bottles are childproof, and not all medications are safe for everyone. Securing your medication prevents kids, grandchildren, or visitors from accidentally taking them.

Even if a friend or family member has similar pain or symptoms, a medicine prescribed for you could cause someone else serious harm.

Keeping left over, expired meds at home can increase the risk of accidental misuse and overdose. Order a disposal pouch or visit a drop-box near you to get rid of medication safely.

To get your free lockbox or disposal pouch, visit drugfreect.org
